
A diagram showing a 15x2 array of data points. It consists of two rows of 15 circles each, arranged in a grid. The top row has 15 circles, and the bottom row has 15 circles. The circles are arranged in a regular grid pattern, representing the data points in the array.