
A diagram consisting of two rows of circles. The top row contains 15 circles, and the bottom row contains 14 circles, aligned under the first 14 circles of the top row. This represents a 15x2 array of data.

A 2x15 grid of circles, representing a 30-dot array. The top row contains 15 circles, and the bottom row contains 15 circles.